

I absolutely love K-Love. Its the only station that I know of that plays my favorite christian music. Its all I listen to anymore. They play more of the best hits than any other christian radio station I know of. I love listening to them. As a matter of fact, I have gotten two of my college friends to start listening in too. K-Love definitely gets my day off to a good start. The affect that K-Love has on the viewing area is wonderful. Knowing that K-Love is there for people who need counseling or help is just wonderful. And once I get a job i will do my share of sponsoring. I would really be angry if K-Love got shut down or had to be cut back because so many people are coming to know Jesus Christ because of them. K-Love is in the public interest. There are so many people who love to listen to them. And so many more that are searching for a good christian music station and K-Love works for your entire family.
